Dear Mr. Hinojosa,

The Texas Democrat Party has long looked to California for financial backing and as a model for the socialist policies it wants to implement here in the Lone Star State.

No Californian represents the principles of big government and higher taxes better than California Congresswoman and House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi. This is the same Nancy Pelosi who said that sanctuary cities make us “safer” and who referred to tax cuts for the American people as “crumbs”— statements that are in lockstep with gubernatorial candidate Lupe Valdez and the entire Texas Democrat Party.

On behalf of Texans For Greg Abbott, I would like to extend an offer to bring Leader Pelosi to Texas to campaign for Democrats across our state. This offer would include the leader’s airfare, hotel, and per diem expenses for the entirety of her visit to Texas.

This would be a great opportunity for Texas voters to get a glimpse of what California-style policies would mean for our great state. Those policies include higher taxes, open borders, and a government that dictates every aspect of your life from your healthcare to what sort of straws you can drink from.

In addition, this campaign visit would provide Leader Pelosi with the opportunity to witness firsthand how our commitment to freedom and limited government has resulted in tremendous success and prosperity for the people of Texas.

Should you accept our offer, I will gladly provide a list of Texas’ finest barbecue establishments so that Leader Pelosi can have the full Texas experience as she campaigns across the state that continues to lead the nation in economic growth and job creation.

Sincerely,
